O the cuckoo she's a pretty bird

1

O the cuckoo
she's a pretty bird,
she singeth as she flies.
She bringeth good tidings, she telleth no lies.
She sucketh white flowers for to keep her voice clear;
And the more she singeth cuckoo, the summer draweth near.

Ja, die Frau Kuckuck
ist ein hübscher Vogel, sie singt im Fliegen.
Sie bringt gute Nachrichten, sie erzählt keine Lügen.
Sie saugt aus weißen Blumen, um ihre Stimme klar zu halten.
Und je öfter sie ‚Kuckuck‘ ruft, kommt der Sommer heran.

As I was a-walking
and a-talking one day,
I met my own true love,
as he came that way.
O to meet him was a pleasure, though the courting was a woe,
for I found him false-hearted, he would kiss me and go.

Als ich spazierte
und redete eines Tages, begegnete ich meinem Liebsten, als er den gleichen Weg kam.
Ja, ihm zu begegnen war eine Freude, aber sein Werben tat weh, denn er erwies sich als falsch, er küsste mich und ging.

I wish I were a scholar and could handle the pen.
I would write to my lover
and to all roving men.
I would tell them
of the grief and woe
that attend on their lies, I would wish them to have pity on the flower when it dies.

Ich wünschte, ich wäre ein Gelehrter, und könnte die Feder führen.
Ich würde
an meinen Geliebten schreiben und an alle untreuen Männer.
Ich würde ihnen berichten von dem Kummer und Schmerz, die durch ihre Lügen entstehen.
Ich wünschte, sie hätten Mitleid mit der Blume, die da stirbt.
